About Me

Hi! I'm Abolfazl, a creative and energetic web developer

- I have been working in this field for over 1 year!
- As an INTJ-A with an analytical and organized mind, I approach challenges with passion to help my team grow and improve.
- I work as a front-end developer, building client-side web apps using React.js.

- And in my opinion:

"A good piece of code is like a poem – written with logic, performed with emotion."
